

The Spirit of God disrupts the old order by interrupting our lives so that we can live as Easter people who enact Christ's kingdom by our witness of justice and love.

1

We Are Witnesses

Acts 5:27-32

God calls us to stand up for the truth about Jesus, rather than following what others say, through obedience to God and the power of the Holy Spirit so that we can stand firm in God's Truth

2

Seeing with God's Eyes

Acts 9:1-20

God sometimes asks us to do things that feel scary, but we can help each other by trusting the Holy Spirit and following God, so that we start to see people the way God sees them -- with love and kindness!

3

All Because You Matter

Acts 9:36-43

No matter who we are, God calls us to help by serving others because when we love people the way Jesus does, we make our community stronger and share God's love with the world.

4

God's Love Has No Bounds

Acts 11:1-18

We are called to love and care for everyone, by accepting people who are different from us, because God's love has no limits!

5

Spreading the Good News

Acts 16:9-15

We can share the message of Jesus's love by telling others about him and trusting the Holy Spirit to help them so that they can know the love of Jesus.

6

Shaking the Prison Foundations

Acts 16:16-34

We can be reassured even when things are unfair, by trusting God to bring good out of bad situations so that we can find light in the darkness.

7

Come Holy Spirit

Acts 2:1-21

The Holy Spirit guides us by letting us see the world in a new way and helping us be new people so that we can share Jesus's love and do what God wants us to do.
